

Frog in the Pot

There is a proverb: if you put a frog in a pot of cold water and slowly turn up the heat, the frog will be oblivious to the fact that he is slowly being cooked. The same is true for many things in our lives; WE don't necessarily realize when change is taking place, especially when it happens slowly. What do we do when the frog is the core values of our United States Constitution and the Media has their hand on the temperature control?

To quote George Washington, "The power under the Constitution will always be in the people. It is entrusted for certain defined purposes, and for a certain limited period, to representatives of their own choosing; and whenever it is executed contrary to their interest, or not agreeable to their wishes, their servants (very important) can and undoubtedly will be recalled."

The United States Government, one of the oldest governments in the world, has a well written Constitution which insures, for the sake of all of its people, that their God given rights will remain protected. It is a written asylum which has survived and protected our freedoms for 229 years. It does not limit our power and our rights ... it prevents the Federal Government from taking them away. What happens when members, our servants, of the Federal Government, past and present, are corrupt and do not uphold the laws they were elected to defend or enforce and additionally use their elected power for their own personal gain. We vote them and their cronies out; this is our voice.

The difficulty we are faced with, especially in regards to our upcoming election, is the influence of what is a very bias media. The Press/Media is the ONLY private sector establishment that is protected by our United States Constitution (Amendment I) and is done so for the sole purpose of informing "We the people". It is the responsibility of The Press to bring valid, unbiased information to the commoners so we can be properly informed, forewarned and well educated in FACTUAL events and data to enable us to make valid decisions regarding the future of our country and our lives. It is NOT the job of THE PRESS to be a judge or a jury of any news worthy event or to attempt to control with a predilection; for the sake of their own agenda. With the corruption of our media, the melange of social information available and the selfish, blatant, narcissistic abuses by our elected representatives (our servants) it is imperative that we educate ourselves utilizing many sources.

Truth does prevail ... and is exposed sooner or later; albeit sometimes burdensome to uncover it. I am reminded of my parents tactic when we were kids and we did something wrong. Mom or Dad would inquire "How did this happen?" When our responses were not consistent with one another, Mom and Dad would separate us and get our individual account of the naughty deed. Through irregularities in our depositions and minor admissions of the truth, our elders, along with their common sense and logic, could deduce the real story. The same goes with The Press and all media. We have so many resources that are helpful in uncovering the truth. The trick is "Don't gather all your flowers from just one meadow."

Our Dignity and Integrity as a nation are NOT FOR SALE. Our Freedom and Liberty are NOT FOR RENT. Our Laws and Constitution are NOT TO BE TREATED with disregard and as a frivolous amusement. Men and Women fought, lost their lives and continue to do so, to insure that our God given rights, as stated in the United States Constitution, are upheld. *

"America, The Beautiful"

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern impassion'd stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for heroes proved In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved,
And mercy more than life!
America! America! May God thy gold refine
Till all success be nobleness,
And ev'ry gain divine!

O Beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!
